Your privacy rights

This section explains why your information is collected and how it is used, shared and protected. It also explains how you can access your personal information.

The personal information you provide is collected under the authority of The Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings Act (Government of Saskatchewan), The Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings Regulations (Government of Saskatchewan) the Department of Employment and Social Development Act (Government of Canada), the Canada Education Savings Act (Government of Canada) and the Income Tax Act (Government of Canada) for the administration of the SAGES.

You are not obligated to provide any personal information. However, refusal to provide personal information will result in ESDC being unable to pay the SAGES to the trustee in respect of the RESP beneficiary.

The personal information you provide may be used by and shared between the following parties for the administration of The Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings Act and the Income Tax Act: the Government of Saskatchewan, ESDC, the Canada Revenue Agency, the RESP provider and its agents, the trustee, and between RESP providers when transferring RESP assets.

Information may be shared with a third party contracted by ESDC for direct mailings. Information may be used for policy analysis, research, statistical and/or evaluation purposes. Information may also be disclosed to Statistics Canada for research and statistical purposes. However, these additional uses will never result in an administrative decision being made about you.

Once under the control of ESDC, the information is administered in accordance with the Department of Employment and Social Development Act, the Canada Education Savings Act, the Privacy Act and all other applicable laws.

You have the right to the protection of, and access to, your personal information. The personal information banks ESDC PPU 506 and ESDC PPU 390 describe the types of information held by ESDC for the administration of the SAGES by the Canada Education Savings Program. Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined in the government publication entitled Info Source, which is available at Canada.ca/infosource-ESDC. Info Source may also be accessed online at any Service Canada Centre.

You have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the institution's handling of your personal information. Additional information is available at www.priv.gc.ca/en.
